* A red number indicates that the jury member was not allowed to vote or give points to the actual candidate because the jury member defined the candidate as a student, or had another relation to the candidate that could raise questions about partiality issues. For such a candidate the number of points noted is the average of points given by the other jury members, and if the average is 18 points or more, it will count as a YES vote from the actual jury member. For further information, see the Rules of the Jury.

- Participants with YES should not have less than 18 points.
- Participants with NO should not have more than 17 points.
